

Southern Wisconsin Trout Unlimited

2011 IceBreaker

Stream Keepers Education Program.

This is our second year offering the SWTU Stream Keepers program for future cold water enthusiasts as part of our IceBreaker.

Admission to the IceBreaker and the Stream Keepers event is free for our future cold water enthusiasts under 12 years of age when accompanied by a paid parent admission.

The program will give our young enthusiast a chance to have fun learning

- ✚ Fly casting skills
- ✚ Fly tying
- ✚ Aquatic insect identification
- ✚ Stream restoration and ecology.

Time: 9:45 Am to Noon

Each Stream Keeper completing the program will receive a raffle ticket for a special bucket raffle drawing for an LL Bean fly and rod reel set. The drawing will be held at 12:45 PM and the Stream Keeper must be present to win.
