

Southern Wisconsin Chapter Trout Unlimited's 25th Annual

ICE BREAKER

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17  8:30 AM - 4:30PM

Promega Biotechnology Center ← 5445 East Cheryl Parkway, Fitchburg, WI

Featuring

Rick Osthoff

Author of 3 fly-fishing books including most recently Active Nymphing

Rich is an innovative fly fisherman, guide and designer

Rich has fished Wisconsin all his life and also extensively in the Western States and backcountry.

Come listen to his eloquent presentation on Active Nymphing and be prepared to revisit your technique

Also Featuring

Dave Barron

Dave is an FFF master fly caster and he will demo casting strategies with his talk

He has been a local guide for over 20 years and runs a B & B plus guiding service in Richland Center, WI

Teacher, friend of SWTU, and a dynamic public speaker

Jim Bartelt

Jim is one of SWTU's most skilled fishermen and guides.

He is a stalwart chapter member and will recount some of the chapter's accomplishments over the last 40 years

His presentation, "Presenting the Fly on Spring Creeks" will give you the knowledge to nymph up the big ones on almost any water

Raffle Items and Door Prizes including: Quality Fly Rods and Reels, Presentation Flies, Fine Prints, and many other items donated by area businesses.

Advance Tickets $9 ($10 at door)
Contact Brendan Budack, Treasurer, at

www.swtu.org

INFO: Josh Palmer at joshuacpalmer@gmail.com or

www.swtu.org